

Proposed System Description

The proposed system will solve the problems that are faced on the existing system or change manual system to Online web based system in the following way:-

Administrator: (managment)

- give privillage to the election committies, candidates, voters.
- oversee the voting process (such as total voters and remaining voters to vote)
- manage account for students, voters, candidates and election committies to the system.
- give privillage to the election committies.(add election committies to the system).

Election committie

- accept previous documents from the student union.
- anounces for the interested applicants to apply for the election .
- put starting and deadline date for candidates registration.
- approve the registered candidates for the election.
- announces selected candidates for the election.
- fill candidate information or profile in the sytem.
- announces the election date and time for the university society by posting in the webstie.
- announces the date and time for interview, presentaiton.
- preview the shcedule plan and presentation the candidates and listens to their presentation.
- give value for the schedul plan and presentations for the candidates out 40%.
- approve the winners of the election.
- post the result of the election.

-accept complain.

--announce the result to the elected representatives.

candidate

-- login in to the system.

--advertise information and promises.

-- completing his registration like uploading experiences schedule plans to the system.

-- view results of the election.

--give complain.

voter

-- login into the system.

-- give vote for the competitors.

--view detailed candidate information.

--view result of the election.

registerar

--registration of the data of the students of the university.

-- checks the eligibility of the candidates for the election, such grade, year of study.

functional requirements

- Candidate and voter registration.

---candidate Profile Management:

-- submit scheduled plans and other documents.

-- advertize promisses and expreineces.

--validation of candidates and voters.

-- election committie registration.

--voting. (accept voice from voters)

--counting of votes.

--cancilation of existing members.

--cancelation of candidates.

--account management.

--generating the final result.

-- announcing the result to the university.

--announce start and end time of the election.

--announce data time for interview.

